

Almost Lost: The Heinemann Legacy

A film screening and conversation in observance of Holocaust Remembrance Day

Sunday, April 23, 2017, 5:00-7:00 pm

At St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, 678 Enos Way,
Livermore, CA 94551

Dr. Becki Cohn-Vargas is a local educator and social justice advocate who works with the national non-profit, Not in Our Town, which brings together communities who stand up to hate. Her film is a powerful story of resilience and reconciliation when the Lüneburg Museum returned items the Nazis stole from her great, great grandfather, Marcus Heinemann, a prominent Jewish citizen and community leader. It documents the reunion of many descendants of her family, victims of the Holocaust, dispersed across the world.

The screening will be followed by facilitated group discussion and light refreshments.
