Just for Kids!

Welcome to St. Bart's Children's and Youth Ministries.

School is back in session! Sunday school Godly Play lessons will begin Sept. 9 at 10:20 am. Students will return to their families in time for birthday prayers and the Eucharist. Godly Play lessons are geared towards children and youth over 5 years of age. We will gather in the Parish Hall at 10:20 am and prepare to enter the classroom. We will be exploring the Saints this year. Please fill out a registration form for Godly Play on our website.

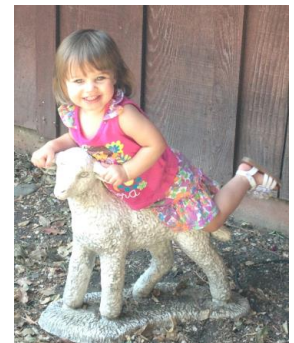

Thank you to everyone who sponsored a Saint. Your generosity is making it possible for our Godly Play program to be very successful this Fall. We still have a few saints that still could use a sponsor; if you are interested in sponsoring one, please let Abigail Plemmons know.

Communion of Saints lessons

We are proud to announce that, starting Sept. 8, St. Bart's will have a regular childcare provider at the 10:30am service each Sunday. Children ages 0 to 5 are welcome to meet in the Room to Grow classrooms for fun and supervision while parents attend the service. Parents may pick up their child during the Peace in time for the Eucharist, or after the service. Please fill out a form (found on the church website) to register your child for childcare. Youth Group

St. Bart's Youth group will be starting up again at 4:00 pm Sunday, Sept. 8 under the direction of congregation member Steve Chiolis! On Aug. 6, Steve and group members Jessica and Charlotte Plemmons and Maureen and Kylie L'Eplattenier made quick work of filling 45 backpacks with supplies for needy kindergarteners.

Our youth group is open to kids age 10 and up; it meets weekly in St. Bart's "Under the Fig Tree" Youth Room for fun activities, service and in-depth discussion. Keep an eye out in next month's Full Circle for more about the group and its new leader.

There will be a youth group parent meeting at 3:30pm on the 8th, preceding the youth meeting. Contact Steve at schiolis@laspositacollege.edu.

Soul Siblings, our serialized story about three teen friends, will be continued in October.
